Celebrate Kennedy 2012

Celebrate Kennedy 2012 was a great success because of the following people: Mary Lundberg, Charlette Rynning, Gloria Dziengel, Kim Dziengel, Mary Cooney, Donna Bostad and Melony Dziengel provided quilts for the beautiful quilt show. Esther Pietruszewski, Goldie Johnson, Mary Pinnock, Arlene Kain, Amanda Pietruszewski and Cammy McEnelly and the Senior Center crew made a wonderful lunch and ice cream treats throughout Saturday afternoon. Jody Bowman and her crew headed up the kids games. Kevin & Jami Hanson and Paul & Tracy Larson organized Friday night at the ball park. Kim & Keith Dziengel and Mike & VeAnn Green brought their horses in for horseback rides. Jon Turn, Kevin Hanson, Mary Ryden, Duane Peterson, Greg Mitziga, Tina Turn, Gary Bostad, Vanessa Mattson and Chelsey Lynne volunteered during the 5K event. Lynn Mattson helped with the golf tournament. And the "Kennedy Crew" and everyone at the VFW and Café provided great food, drink and music to close out a wonderful week-end!

KENNEDY'S 125TH ANNIVERSARY will be celebrated in 2014. Please begin to think about how you would like to celebrate and contribute.

THE KENNEDY BURN PILE IS NOT A GARBAGE DUMP

The burn pile is not a place for your beer bottles or cans, plastic garbage bags or your old wooden furniture. Again, the city would like to keep this service open to our residents but we need everyone's cooperation to do so. PLEASE work with us to make this possible.

GARBAGE BAGS are available at the city office, AND NOW ALSO at the city shop and the senior center. Additionally, we will deliver bags to you if you call the city office and leave a message. All bags must be paid for at the time of purchase or delivery.
